

When we met Tupac we had just left the Arena on Sunset because it was gay night & we couldn't get in

we were five of us crammed into Kelly's red hatchback about to just get some Taco Bell & go home when we saw him in a black Mercedes equally crammed & we screamed & yelled We Love You! & he & his friends invited us to a hotel party which seemed sketchy to me but it was Tupac & it was Kelly's car & she wanted to go so we went it was not far away also on Sunset by the time we got a parking space a bunch of girls were already there talking to him he was surrounded & shorter than all of them his head looked like it was bigger than his body but he had really white perfect teeth & a leather vest with no shirt & all those hot tattoos we asked one of the bodyguard guys where the bathroom was so we could freshen up & of course we all had to go together & Kelly started talking about how much she wanted to get at Tupac she was from Louisiana & lived in a house in the Hollywood Hills the richest of us which was easy actually because we were mostly poor & lived in apartments but she said she wanted to get to his room & have sex with him & say he raped her can you believe that shit she wanted the money & we all laughed at first but this chick was serious we told her we weren't going for it she said whatever I'm cuter than all y'all & I drove I'ma do whatever the fuck I want she unbuttoned her top down to the lace of her white bra & walked out of the bathroom I had on one of my least favorite outfits because it was time to do the laundry I might be blocking it from memory but I think it was brown or olive green or something yuck & the four of us debated what to do about Kelly so I decided to call my dad for a ride home came out of the bathroom & asked where the pay phone was back then we all had pagers but no cell & one of the bodyguards was blocking another girl from entering the lobby she was at least 6 feet tall & barely dressed but super young in the face he asked for ID & it was a middle school ID she was only 13 he told her go home right now little girl where are your parents we were in shock but glad he seemed decent we felt like we had to tell him what Kelly was doing & she saw us coming up to him & got pissed she walked away from where she was waiting to talk to Tupac yes there were that many chicks up in there all lined up & she said let's just go & in the car she called us a bunch of lame virgins but we didn't care I said she was a skank for trying to do that & she wanted me out of her car but nobody would let her do that either we never really hung out again after that oh well I didn't really like her that much anyway when we met it was because she said I tried to steal her boyfriend but I didn't he came on to me he was the captain of the basketball team & I didn't even know he was a basketball player at all I was just trying to study for my SATs & that is a whole other story
